Hidden away in the heart of West Orange is a luxurious classic colonial, featuring unique architectural details, renovated by award-winning architects Ferguson and Shamamian, with a state-of-the-art tennis court and a rooftop terrace with wintertime skyline views. Resting at the top of a private road cul-de-sac, enjoy the serenity of the estate's privacy coupled with the convenience of transportation to New York City mere minutes away and a home filled with windows and natural light.

Ascend the wide brick steps to enter into the gracious Foyer, connecting the main areas of the home with archways to invite guests into the entertaining spaces and a classic angled staircase leading to the
